Our Community Based PSH (HUD PSH) provides housing and supportive case management to adults who have been chronically homeless. This program offers a safe, supportive environment for clients to stabilize their lives while improving life skills and addressing their mental, physical, and emotional needs. The goal of COTS HUDPSH program is to enable participants to live as independently as possible during their residence. We housed 20 adults in this program in FY 2020-21. Mary Isaak Center Permanent Supportive Housing (MICPSH) opened in February 2019 as an 11 room housing wing inside our flagship building in Petaluma. As a partnership with St. Joseph Health, MICPSH serves clients with chronic health conditions who have been referred by the healthcare system. With the support of safe, stable housing, effective case management, and onsite services, clients are better able to lead healthier lives and decrease the need for costly hospital stays and municipal services.
