2021-2022

a note from chris

Dear COTS Friends and Supporters,

Over the last year, COTS has made vast improvements to its programs, improved morale for its workforce, and grown to serve more vulnerable community members than ever before. As the world breaks from the grip of the COVID-19 pandemic, COTS is poised to continue its growth trajectory and continue as a celebrated provider in Sonoma County.

FY22 brought important changes for the Mary Isak Center—changes that have proven to provide better outcomes for those we serve. In late FY22, COTS began to focus its energy on transforming our programs into housing-focused programs—resulting in more clients locating and securing affordable permanent housing. Through the integration of evidence-based case management practices and the addition of several supportive positions, COTS was able to reconstruct its programs to best meet the individual needs of every unique client. This transformation is ongoing into FY23, and we look forward to providing an update next year.

FY22 was also a time for planning leadership transitions for COTS. In 2022, Chuck Fernandez announced his upcoming retirement after many wonderful years serving COTS and the larger community. Chuck left a legacy of compassion and love—ensuring COTS was ready for its next chapter.

As we look forward in 2023, COTS will celebrate its 35th anniversary in service to the community. We have planned expansions, new summer client activities, program updates, and a lot of workforce growth—these renewed strategies and priorities will ensure COTS remains a pillar in the Sonoma County community for the next 35 years.

I am humbled to lead such an incredible organization and honored to work alongside some of the most incredible people I have ever met. We are all looking forward to many years of service to this wonderful community we call home.

Yours sincerely,

Chris Cabral, CEO

donor spotlight: chris baker

Chris Baker and his wife Lori have lived in Petaluma for over 35 years, and they have been involved in several charitable organizations, but COTS is especially important to Chris.

Chris' brother suffered from mental illness and addiction that resulted in homelessness and, eventually, a stay at COTS. "Within a couple of days [at COTS], he was almost back to his normal personality," said Chris. Chris credits COTS, their programs, and its case managers for making a real difference in his brother's life. "He wouldn't be alive if it wasn't for COTS."

When it came time to plan their estate, Chris and Lori partnered with the Community Foundation of Sonoma County. "COTS has a program that works," said Chris.

He hopes that through legacy giving, COTS can broaden and deepen its services.

Thank you, Chris and Lori, for making a commitment to our work through your estate plan.

If you are interested in learning about leaving your own legacy, please contact Erin Krueger, Director of Development, at ekrueger@cots.org or 707-765-6530 ext. 126.

monthly giving society

The COTS Monthly Giving Society is a group of monthly givers determined to answer the call of our Founders, Mary Isaak and Laure Reichel, whose commitment to addressing the homelessness crisis in Petaluma led them to start COTS back in 1988. Monthly gifts go farther than a one-time donation and help COTS budget for the year ahead. But more than that, they represent a drive to be a part of the solution at a time when homelessness seems entrenched and our world is in desperate need of change. COTS Monthly Giving Society brings together those who are most committed to being that change in our community.

donor spotlight: abhi dubhashi

Growing up in Goa, India, giving back to your community was a value instilled in Abhi at a young age.

That mindset of serving your community didn't change when he moved to the United States for grad school. After a brief stint in Dallas, Abhi looked to make a career move with a company improving the lives of others. That led him to his current role in Research and Development at Medtronic here in Sonoma County.

During the pandemic, Abhi was moved to support COTS because of the great need in the North Bay for housing. "I remember being really hit deep inside within me, by the situation of lack of homes or seeing people who didn't have a home to go to....I heard about COTS. And I had heard about your founders, Laure and Mary, and I was inspired by their vision. I thought, 'Okay, if I can't directly do any volunteer work, at least what I can do is make a small donation.'"

After that first donation as he learned more about COTS' work, he joined the Monthly Giving Society. His employer also matches his monthly donations, making his gifts go even further.

We are grateful for monthly supporters like Abhi who are committed to making their community a better place.

To join the Monthly Giving Society, visit cots.org or contact Erin Krueger, Director of Development, at ekrueger@cots.org or 707-765-6530 ext. 126

donor list 2021-22

A gift to COTS is an investment in real peoples' lives, in real time.

Your support helps us break down the barriers to housing quickly, expertly and compassionately – by providing direct relief to our clients in the form of rental assistance, transportation to and from job interviews, moving expenses and more. Gifts also allow our staff to meet a range of client needs with individually tailored programs and services that adapt to the complex realities of homelessness.

By making COTS a part of your family's giving plan, you ensure that our services and programs are available to our community whenever need is felt.

COTS is honored to acknowledge the following donors whose support helped sustain our programs from July 1, 2021 to June 30, 2022.
